From The Crown

Greetings good people of the Outlands, from your Soverign Lord and Lady, Hrothgar and Madigan, King and Queen of these great and most glorious lands. We hope that this missive finds you all enjoying good health and fine times during these busy summer da ys.

Gentle Outlanders,

It cheers us greatly to know that the heat of the summer will soon fade as autumn approaches. The cool air and gentle breezes of early fall are always refreshing to the mind and body. We would like to congratulate Master Daved Shmuel ben Rachon for his elevation to the Order of the Laurel at Lonely Mountain Defender. The beauty of the site and the warmth of those assembled made the ceremony and event a most enjoyable one for Us.

The busy month of August has brought Us many joyous occassions to grow closer to the populous and visit faroff lands. Our Kingdom's attendance at Pennsic War has only served to increase the honor and glory of the Outlands. We would like t o thank all those gentles who made that great journey and showed the Outlands so well. Our journey to the Shire of the Hinterlands only served to further Our knowledge of the graciousness of the people of this Kingdom. The month of September promises to be equally wonderful. We would again encourage all Outlanders who can attend to join Us with our brothers and sisiters of Calontir for the Outlands-Calontir friendship event at Valor Tournament. This event promises to be an excellent time for sharing the ideas, customs, and cultures and making our two kingdoms grow stronger by the existance of this bond.

We continue to feel great joy and pride in this great Kingdom of the Outlands, which is only expanded with each venture throughout Our Kingdom. We remain, as always, in service to the Outlands.

Members of the populace are encouraged to give tokens to the entrant(s) of their choice.

The judging will be based on six criteria:

- Documentation: Is there any documentation at all? Is it presented logically? Are there both primary and secondary sources?
- Construction: How well is the project put together on the whole? Are there areas that are lacking, or is it well thought out and put together?
- Creativity: Does the project represent something that has been previously researched and produced by many others or is it something that is original?
- Authenticity: Is this product something (or representative of something) that could have existed in the Middle Ages?
- Complexity: Does this entry require multiple steps to achieve the final result?
- General Impression: Judges will use this area to make any other comments and evaluations.

Please send forms (and research papers) to Mistress Jeanne no later than September 1, 1995.

The rules for the Queen's Prize Tournament are:

Sponsors:

1) Sponsors must be members of the Orders of the Argent Hart or the Laurel. (Bearers of the Argent Hart may not sponsor themselves.)
2) Each sponsor must bring at least one "prize" or token, preferable made by their own hand, for each entrant they are sponsoring. One prize will be awarded by the Queen to each entrant In this manner, everyone will receive at least one "prize"; however, feel free to make extra to award personally to other entrants.
3) The sponsor may not physically assist in the production of an entry, but is encouraged to teach skills, help direct research efforts, offer advice or encouragement, etc. as needed or requested by the entrant in order to facilitate the production of the entry.

4) Sponsors are responsible for preregistering their entrants.
5) There is no limit to the number of people you may sponsor, but try not to sponsor so many that you cannot give adequate encouragement and help to all.
6) If either the Sponsor or the Entrant is unable to attend the competition, it is the sponsor's responsibility to make sure that the entries / prizes get to the competition in a timely manner.
7) Sponsors should provide a self addressed stamped envelope to assure that the entrant will receive his/her judging forms after the event.

Entrants:

1) Entrants may not be members of the Order of the Laurel.
2) All entrants must have a sponsor from the Order of the Laurel or a Companion of the Argent Hart.
3) Entrants do not have to do something in a field for which their Sponsor is known. Entries may be in any field.
4) Each entrant is limited to a single entry.
5) Entries will be judged more or less by kingdom criteria, but the judges will be kind.
6) Entries need not be in their final state by the time of the competition, however, completion is highly encouraged. If the work is incomplete, be prepared to explain the finishing of the entry.
7) All work shall be completed by the entrant. For this reason, group entries are discouraged, but may be entered as long as there is only one entrant in the group.
8) Please make every attempt to be with your entry during the judging as we are planning on having face-to-face judging.
9) If you are writing a research paper, a brief presentation of your research along with a written synopsis would facilitate your entry.

BRIGAND'S FOLLY

September 30

When the coronets were away the Northmen did play! Beware the cunning Dane!

As is common knowledge by now, a well meaning (although misguided) effort to see to the security of His Majesties northernmost lands was attempted over the Brigand's Bizarre weekend. The Coronets of Dragonsspine, in absence of the Coronets of Caerthe and Unser Hafen, did claim and seize all lands north of Raton, placing them under protective "Dane Law". This action, entirely noble in nature and well meaning in the extreme was entirely unnecessary and unwarranted, for at no time were the lands unattended or unprotected in any way, shape, or form. Therefore, so that the obvious errors in this well meaning, although somewhat rash and misdirected action can be fully explained, demonstrated, and pointed out to our honorable neighbors in Dragonsspine, we bring you the Brigand's Folly Wars!

This event will take place in the Barony of Caerthe on September 30th, at the Nation Guard Armory, 55 Potomac, in Aurora, CO. Duke Veron will run the heavy weapons fighting and Lord Robert Stewart will run the fencing scenarios. Lest Dragonsspine think that Caerthe and Unser Hafen are weak in any way, there will also be a Fashion War and a Bardic War to prove that the Northern Baronies can hold their own on any field of battle. The categories for the Fashion War will be: Best use of Baronial colors in garb, Best use of personal arms in garb, and Best example of period garb from any one century within SCA parameters. The rules for the Fashion and Bardic Wars will be explained at the event. Lord Grellan and Lady Caelainn will run the Bardic War, which will include storytelling, songs, instrumental, and a best toast to a Barony. There will be a Ceilidh (a jam session) after the formal competition. Feel free to contact these gentles at (303) 287-6963.

The site opens at 9 am. Fighting will begin at approximately noon and will run until about 5 pm. The feast will begin at 6 pm.

Fees: The site fee is $4 per person - nonmembers please add $3. There will be a Middle Eastern feast prepared for $4 per person. Children under 12 get free admission and feast. Make checks payable to "SCA-Caerthe". Send site and Feast reservations to the Autocrat.

Please note that this site is damp - beer and wine in period containers only.

This site has lost most of its' tables If you wish to sit at a table for feast please consider bringing your own. Anyone who could bring an extra table would earn the autocrat's eternal gratitude.

Directions: From I-225 turn west at the 6th Ave. exit. Turn south on Potomac and go for about 1/2 a mile. The Armory is on the west side of the street. If you reach Alameda you have gone too far!

Caerthen 12th Night

January 6, 1996

A 12th Night Off The Barbary Coast

Have a rough year fighting spanish injustice toward the moors? Exhausted after reiving the coast of England? Crew need a rest from running Ottoman blockades of the spice road?

Come all ye rovers, freebooters and stout folk of the sea to join the crew of the Tigershark in celebration of the Epiphany. Their Excellencies Aethelstan and Tess of Caerthe have declared a general cessation of hostilities upon the sea for the duration of the holidays, and invite all seafarers to an agreed neutral island to celebrate the beginning of a splendid new year.

Set sail from your home port of call in time to arrive Saturday, January 6 A.S. XXX (1995), and dock upon the island formerly called Jefferson County Fairgrounds. (Map next month)

There will be swashbuckling activities in the morning, followed by feasting, dancing, and general tomfoolery all the day long. The Tigershark welcomes any who wish to perform, or have their passengers perform, for the amusement of the assembled guests.

Cpt. Morgan is collecting chefs from many ports to bring you a wide variety of delicacies. If you or any on your crew have dietary restrictions, a quick letter or better yet email to the Captain will provide you some chance of accomodation. Those with vows preventing the consumption of flesh will achieve sustenance.

The fee for attending this extravaganza is a mere $13 if received by December 1. After that, it will increase to $15. $5.00 discount if you are staffing crew members or passengers under the age of 12. (They eat less.)

For information, volunteering, pleas for mercy contact: Cpt. T.S. Morgan (Jeannie Warner) 266 Hoover Avenue Louisville, CO 80027 warnerj@ucsu.colorado.edu

From the Seneschal

Baron Lambert de Sur

The new SCA insurance letter and the Certificate of Insurance have been received and are being distributed to local seneschals. In most cases, a copy of this letter is sufficient proof of insurance to satisfy the owners of event sites. The equestrian insurance was in the final negotiation stages and the new coverage letter is expected shortly. Please recall that, if you are holding an equestrian event of any type at which non-members are present, special notification of the insurance company is required for our coverage to be in effect. Contact the Kingdom Deputy for Equestrian Affairs, Lady Kassandra (address and phone number inside the front cover), as soon as the event planning begins to ensure that the requirements are met.

Kingdom Law requires the Kingdom Great Officers and the corresponding local officers to report on a monthly basis or be subject to suspension or removal. Regular reports are necessary to permit the Crown and the Kingdom Officers to be aware of your activities, provide assistance, identify potential problems, and to obtain the information they require to perform their jobs. These reports do not have to overly complex or lengthy to serve their function. Regular reports also ease the preparation of the Doomsday Reports which are rapidly approaching.

When a vacancy in a local office occurs, the outgoing officer; the local seneschal; in a Barony, the Baron and Baroness; and the populace may all make recommendations to the Kingdom Officer for the replacement. The final choice, however, rests with the Crown and the Kingdom Officer who must sign the warrant. The vacancy should be advertised within the group so that interested individuals can apply by sending a letter of interest including a short summary of related experience (SCA and/or mundane) to the local seneschal and the Kingdom Officer.

A final note: when you disagree with a decission or a policy of a local or Kingdom officer, first discuss it with them directly. Many times disagreements result from a lack of information on one or both sides and can be resolved quickly. If you are still dissatified, the SCA Organization Handbook (Corpora) provides an appeal process up through the "chain of command". Jumping the chain of command (i.e., going directly to the corporate level over a local matter), serves only to confuse the issue and harden positions.

From the Chronicler

Lord Alwyn of Kittisford

I wish to offer my sincere apologies for the extreme lateness of this issue. A variety of real-world issues combined with the absense of my principal deputies and helpers at Pennsic to wreak havok on my schedule. I offer no excuses, and I hope that this disaster can be avoided in the future.

It is to this end that I am looking for one or more serious deputies who would be willing, if it ever becomes necessary again, to take over the issue for an entire month – and eventually take over the production of The Outlandish Herald entirely. For logistical reasons I would prefer at least on deputy to be from the central Outlands (third class issues must be mailed from Colorado Springs), but I will not turn away anyone who is sincerely interested. Please write or call if you too have been possessed by the insane idea of being a Kingdom Chronicler.

The response for an Arts & Sciences issue was not what I had hoped. Thus I will most probably not be producing a seperate issue, but mixing the articles I did get in with the usual stuff. A sudden influx of material could still change my mind, however!

I remain,

Alwyn

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

Mistress Liobsynde Belhringere

The Arts and Sciences Collegium will be held October 14th and 15th in the Shire of the Hinterlands. Instructors are NEEDED for both days. Please call me at (719) 520-9839, or contact Lady Marie d'Acre at (303) 666-7066.

Instead of a Scriptorium there will be a documentation workshop,. People are invited to bring books, reference materials, etc. to share with others. Help on how to write documentation will also be available. Individuals who would like to share their expertise are invited to contact me.

From Last Month: In an effort to reassess the competition process with an eye to improving it or developing a replacement, I am soliciting input. I am asking those who have constructive suggestions about holding or running competitions, judging criteria, judging methods, etc., send me those suggestions by September 15th, 1995. Suggestions and ideas can include those used in other kingdoms as well as those tried by the local groups. I will be compiling the responses in order to present them for a discussion to be held at the October Collegium.

I am also asking for bids for the March Arts and Sciences Competition from interested groups around the Kingdom.

A reminder to local arts and sciences officers: when you resign or take office, please contact me. For incoming officers, I need a simple letter of introduction that basically has your name (SCA and mundane), address and phone number. Any information on your interests, projects, etc. that you wish to include is also welcome. Officers must be paid members of the SCA. Reports are due monthly, preferably by the 15th.

On another note, I am announcing my resignation of this office effective October 14th. I recommended to the Crown, Kingdom Seneschal and Corporate MOAS as my successor My deputy Lady Marie d'Acre. I do wish to solicit letters from others interested in the office. Those who wish to apply must be reasonably good at paperwork, able to travel to Kingdom A&S events and be willing to set up/run the Kingdom A&S events. Individuals must be acceptable to the Crown, the Corporate MOAS and the Kingdom Seneschal.

From the Archer General

Lord PeregrineElric of Courtenay

Greetings unto the Archers of the Outlands! Much activity has taken place since my last missive. After continuing Marshal of the Field (MOF) classes, I am pleased to report six newly warranted MOF, (making a Kingdom total of fifty-two):

Lord Restald de Monet & Lord Ashikaga no Toshihiro - Hinterland

Mistress Fiachra ni Ciardhubhain & Richenda Letallier de Tremont - Caerthe

Lord Mavrikii Andrikov - Windkeep

Bere FitzRobert of York - Dragonsspine

At Feathers in the Wind there were Archers from every corner of the Kingdom, and many classes were taken and arrows shot. The Kingdom Archer Ranking System is firmly in place, with the first Bowmaster and Forester qualified individuals in the Kingdom recognized. Those gentles are:

Bowmaster: Lord Yanthlos the Quiet (currently the Royal Archer) - Windkeep

Forester: Lord Peregrine Elric of Courtenay - Hinterland; Lord Ashikaga no Toshihiro - Hinterland; Sir Mark von dem FalkensFenn - Windkeep

At the time of this writing there are also seventeen Yeoman archers, and numerous Bowmen and Novice archers. To be "official", the three scores must be verified by a Marshal of the Field or Group Marshal and received by Lord Yanthlos (Deputy Archer General for Scores whose address is in the ront cover of the O.H.) along with the appropriate personal data included on the application.

To review the Ranking System briefly, here are currently three Divisions: Childrens, which is shot from 15, 20, & 25 yards and signified by a white knot on the appropriate colored tassel; Open (blue knot) shot with more modern equipment, and Traditional gold knot) using at a minimum "self-nocked" arrows and scored in accordance with this season IKAC rules. These divisions are shot at 20, 30, & 40 yards. All shoot a standard Royal Round, and Color of Tassel s determined by the average of the three highest Royal Round scores (must be on at least two different days) through the same calendar year. Once a ranking is earned, an archer holds it for future seasons. For Yeoman and above (considered Kingdom Ranked and automatically eligible to shoot n the Royal Archer Tournament) one of the three scores must be at another group or at an event published in the O.H. The colors of he 12" tassel are the same as the color of scoring rings in the standard target, from outside o center:

Novice	Hi 3 Average of 1 - 24
White tassel	No "away score" needed
Bowman	Hi 3 Average of 25-44
Black tassel	No "away score" needed
Yeoman	Hi 3 Average of 45-64
Blue Tassel	Away score required
Forester	Hi 3 Average of 65-84
Red Tassel	Away score required
Bowmaster	Hi 3 Average of 85 +
Gold Tassel	Away score required

The Kingdom has many archers who should be recognized. Please get your Royal Round Scores sent in so that we may do so! If you have questions, call me!

Peregrine

From the Chirurgeon

Master Rhys Afalwin

The following article was written by Lady Aldyth Trefaldwyn and given to me for my use. After reading it, I felt it should be shared with everyone.

Top 10 Ways to Keep Chirurgeons Happy

10. Look out for each other. If someone is drinking too much, or too little, or just isn't acting right, bring it to the chirurgeon's attention. Sometimes it can prevent a catastrophe.
9. If you have a medical condition that could incapacitate you, let the chirurgeon know. If there is no chirurgeon on site, leave the info at the troll booth. It could save your life for someone to know that you have a heart condition, diabetes, asthma, seizure disorder or severe allergy.
8. In a hot environment to drink at least 2 gallons of water (not soda, or Gatorade, or alcohol) daily. This also goes in proportion for children and pets. Stay in the shade if possible, and use a good sunscreen. Dress appropriately, in layers of light colored clothing , and if you feel the least bit strange, visit the chirurgeon.
7. In a cold environment, dress in layers, with cotton or silk next to your skin. Do not stay in wet clothes. If you do get a chill, and can't seem to get warm, visit the chirurgeon. During Estrella War a few years ago, the remnants of a hurricane hit, with devastating results to people and goods. The largest thing treated at Chirurgeons Point was Hypothermia. Even though the temperature was around 70, the combined effect of wind and rain cooled everyone down fast.
6. PLEASE bring your medications with you. This includes aspirin, ibuprofen, Tylenol, etc. The chirurgeon does not routinely carry medications in their kits. At Estrella War, someone forgot their blood pressure medication, and came to Chirurgeons Point to get a refill.

5. If you bring children, make sure you bring ALL of their accouterments. Baby food, diapers, diaper rash meds, powder, wet wipes, baby sunscreen, baby insect repellent, are all things that chirurgeons have been asked for .
4. If you are bringing an animal, bring ALL of the animals needs. This includes food, water dish, and water. A leash is almost always required. It is also a good idea to bring proof of immunizations (especially rabies) with you if you are traveling across state lines. In the unlikely happening of your animal biting someone, it could save you and yours allot of grief.
3. Pack your own first aid kit of sorts, with things in it specifically for you and yours. Include items such as: band aids, antiseptic wash (Bactine) tweezers, personal medications, sunscreen, insect repellent, ice compress, meat tenderizer, liquid benadryl, calamine lotion, aspirin and non-aspirin pain and fever reducers, ibuprofen and the like. As stated before, you should be able to take care of most problems yourself.
2. If you are responsible for a minor child at an event, STAY ON SITE WITH THAT MINOR CHILD!!! If it is your own child, you need to attend to any problems yourself first, before calling on the chirurgeonate. If it is NOT your child, you need a permission to treat form signed, and in some states notarized, with copies on you and that child. DO NOT PROMISE TO LOOK AFTER SOMEONE ELSE'S CHILD WITHOUT THE FORM. If you are not going to be on site 100 percent of the time, take the minors with you off site.
1. You go to the chirurgeon, do not make the chirurgeon to come to you. A serious injury could occur while the chirurgeon is off taking care of a minor one. If you are physically unable to travel, send someone to the chirurgeon to physically lead him (her) to you, with a brief history of the problem so the appropriate gear can be brought. (Waking up the chirurgeon at 2 am from a sound sleep with cries of "Chirurgeon to XYZ camp, Asthma attack" just doesn't make it. It only serves to get the chirurgeon lost in the dark.)

Enough Said,

Rhyr

From the IAC

Master Roderick deKane

Greetings fellow Outlanders,

The current topics of discussion in the Interkingdom Advisory Council are: 1) Revision of the appointment and removal procedures for territorial Barons/Baronesses (Corpora VI.B.1 and 2) and 2) Branch minimum membership numbers and new branch types (Corpora V.) The deadline for comments is mid December, but earlier is better. Thank you for the comments I've already received.

Here is a synopsis of the current appointment and removal procedures taken from Corpora VI.B.1. Barons/Baronesses are appointed by the Crown. The barony's opinion must be requested and received in writing. Appointments must not be substantively opposed by the populace of the barony. The Crown may suspend or remove a territorial Baron and/or Baroness for just and stated cause. Suspension prohibits the use of the baronial titles and arms, the conduct of baronial courts, and the presentation of baronial awards. The Crown must request a written opinion from the populace of the barony before removing a Baron and/or Baroness.

The current subscribing membership numbers required for branches are: 400 for kingdom, 100 for principality, 25 for barony/province and 5 for shire/canton/riding/college/etc. Note that more than the minimum is usually expected, to account for the inevitable drop in membership after the drive to achieve branch status.

As I write this the July board of directors meeting has just come and gone. Board replies to our July report are not yet available. That report covered interkingdom events and treaties and banishment procedures.

To quote from the report, "There is a strong consensus on the part of committee members that the corporate level not be involved in interkingdom treaties." Where legal issues need to be laid out we suggested a contract signed by the kingdom seneschals. A formal treaty signed by the Crowns is an option to add to the medieval ambiance of the event. "They can lay out some of the rights and responsibilities involved and offer a convenient tool for resolving difficulties before they arise."

We did not recommend any changes to banishment from the royal presence (level 1) or absolute banishment (level 3.) However, we did recommend further discussion of level 3 to produce a set of guidelines or scenarios where level 3 would be appropriate or not. For banishment from the realm (level 2) we recommended that automatic review by the board be replaced by review of a kingdom established Court of Inquiry. The board would remain as the "court of last appeal" as it is in all matters as specified by Corpora III.B.2.

I look forward to hearing more of your opinions. I can be reached at:

From the Scribe

Mistress Joella of Blue Lion's Keep

Unto the Populace of the Outlands, Greetings

I would like to express my belated extreme gratitude to those instructors during the Known World Heraldic and Scribal Symposium. The talented individuals who shared their skills with symposium attendees were Lady Marie d'Acre, Mistress Sarah de Montgomerie, Lady Tatiana Pavlovna Sokolova and Baron Eric Edmundson. The wonderful day of instruction culminated with a slide show provided by Lord William of Chesterfield. It gave all of us a chance to see scrolls we hadn't seen up close as well as a chance to discuss techniques, paints, layout, etc.

Due to mundane considerations, a newborn child to Lady Madeline de la Rochelle, I am now in need of a deputy who would be interested in taking the office no later than a year from now. The job itself is fairly easy. I do spend some time calling scribes trying to cajole them into doing just one more scroll. If there isn't a scribe who can do a scroll, often it falls upon the office to do it. If anyone is interested d, please send me a resume that includes any offices held in the SCA.

Yours in Service,

Joella

From the Board

The following candidates have agreed to nomination for the Board of Directors. The Board earnestly seeks comments on nominees from any Society member, regardless of rank, seniority, or location. What kind of comments are we looking for? How long have you known the nominee and in what capacity; how would you assess their interpersonal skills; what qualities would they bring to the Board of Directors. Ideal board members are excellent writers, competent with math, wise, thoughtful, friendly, good public speakers, patient, flexible, fair-minded, and able to take occasional vacation (Thursday and Friday around board meetings)—all the good things you look for in people. Nominees don't need to have all those traits, but should have a majority of them.

All comments are kept strictly confidential by the Board. If you wish to comment on any of the current nominees or recommend anyone for consideration, please contact the Board Recruiting Ombudsman, L. Jane Richards, 2925 South 7 Street West, Missoula, MT 59801-2021, (406) 721-9658 (Before 10 PM MST).
